LIFE'S BATTLE.

If you deem your life a failure, Then the world adopts your view, If you bury all your talents,

Don't expect the world to tell you Of your station and your worth; Who should better know your value Than yourself of all the earth? Stop lansenting and repining,

If the world has used you [1] You've a place among the useful, You can find it if you will. If you'll face the world with courag Then you'll find a belping hand;

THE DASH FOR THE POLLS,

Is there no way to force the cor greas of the United States to see and to feel that the great masses of the people of this country are poor? To feel its so poignantly that the fact will become the controlling thought m every vote it casts?"

Miss Ida M. Tarbell asks this ques tion in a strong article on "The Mysturies and Cruelties of the Tariff" in he current American magazine. She points out tout we have a few thou sand millionnices-and millions who live from hand to mouth. Most of the legislation is of, by and for the millonnire.
